SATES OF A DVERTELL SPADE-EMART

Both Houses of Congress.

THE SENATE. - The Democratic Senator from Ohio, Mr. Pugh, yesterday in a speech overhauled Mr. Iverson and Mr. 6 win, Sanators respectfully from Georgia and California, and discharged heavy and small shot at intervals, upon the adverse wing of his party-literally taking his game on the wing. A piquant collequial debate ensued. The Committee to investigate the Harper's Perry difficulty were allowed to employ a clerk.

House. -- Hickman and Singleton drew from each other some strong admissions; the Southerner threatening disunion and foreshadowing that Col. Jefferson Davis, of Miss., might a gain load armies to battle. Jeff. might possibly lead, but we doubt whether any army would risk their necks and march with so flimsy a pretext for a cause against the Federal troops. After three ballots, in two of which Mr. Sherman needed but four more votes to be elected, the House adjourned.

Disorganization.

The Democracy are disorganized, having no regular candidate in the United States House of Representatives. On the twelfth ballot yesterday, Mr. Bocock withdrew his name. On a previous ballot Mr. Sherman had received 112, Mr. Bocock 85, Mr. Boteler 21 votes, and scattering 12. The succeeding ballot for Mr. Sherman was 112, Mr. Bocock 19. Mr. Boteler 29 votes, and the balance scattering. The thirteenth ballot was taken with but little change in the vote, and the House adjourned.

General Scott for President. At a mass Union meeting, in New York City, yesterday, WINFIELD SCOTT, of New York, was nominated for the Presidency.

CITY NEWS.

Uszrut.—Those looking for useful presents for Christmas and New Year's, are referred to the advertisement of Henry Ware.

CAVAGNA'S OYSTERS.—Let it be remembered that Cavagna, No. 31 West Fifth-street, has the best oysters brought to this city. Those who want delicious oysters can not do better than go to 31 West Fifth-street.

CONFECTIONERIES FOR THE HOLIDAYS .- Nick Morris, No. 264 Race-street, between Sixth and Seventh, is prepared to furnish families and Christmas parties with rare confectioneries, upon the shortest notice. Those who favor him with a call will not regret it.

CLOARS .- If any husband desires to make his wife an acceptable present—and where is the one who does not?—he should invest in one of the elegant, yet cheap cloaks sold at Wilson's, No. 78 West Fourth-street. See ad-

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS. At their regular session, yesterday morning, the County Commissioners passed sundry orders, amounting in the aggregate to $223 02. No other business of importance was trans-

CHRISTMAS OYSTERS.—Every person will want fine oysters for Christmas, and we refer every person to Robert Orr, No. 11 West Fifth-street. He is sole agent for Maltby's unequaled Baltimore bivalves, and warrants satisfaction given to every one who favors him with their patronage.

FIRE YESTERDAY AFTERNOON,-About two c'clock yesterday afternoon a fire broke out at No. 329 Sixth-street, which partially consumed the building. It was an old frame house, eccupied by a man named H. Johnson. The loss will not exceed three hundred dollars, upon which there was no insurance.

THE PIONER'S FRETIVAL .- The Pioneers Society have determined to celebrate the 70th anniversary of the settlement of Cincinnati by e supper, to be given at the Versuda on Mon-day next, the 20th last. The affair promises to be one of more than ordinary interest, and the Society will doubtless enjoy their memo-ries of the older time to the full extent, that their children will feel interested in the reistion of their reminiscences.

CONCERT AT THE WESLEYAN FRMALE COLLEGE The Glee Class of the Wesleyan Female Colan excellent entertainment, in a concert, to be given this evening at the College Chapel, under the direction of Prefessor Smith. The class is quite large, and has attained a great degree of musical proficiency, while the pro-gramme, which has been carefully selected, we doubt not will be finely rendered.

BURGLARY AND ATTRMPTED ROBBERY IN FIFTH STREET. — Night before last some secondrels felonlously entered the second story of the building No. 26 West Fifth street, with the intention, it is thought, of by this method reaching the auction room of Wilkins & Walter. They found a lad in the house, who they intimidated with their threats, and pursued their way; but at last abandoned their project, carrying nothing with them save an old cost which belonged to the lad.

FAIR FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE SISTERS OF MERCY.—The fair for the benefit of the Sisters of Mercy, which opened last night at the Melodeon Hall, was largely attended. The propiece of property, where these charity dis-pensing sisters may have a larger opportunity to pursue the objects of their institution; and we heartly hope that during the fortnight through which the fair will continue, all who are interested in the education of the poor, the relief of the sick and the distressed, and the protection these self-denying sisters are able to offer to females who are in want of homes, may be induced, by these means, to assist in s) laudable an enterprise.

ANOTHER OF LIPE'S TRAGEDIES-A WOMAN DIES IN AN EXPRESS WAGON ON HER WAY TO THE HOSPITAL.—A woman named Harrist Black was driven to the Commercial Hospital, Black was driven to the Commercial Hospital, yesterday, in an express wagon, and to the astonishment of the persons who conveyed her thither, when they took her from the vehicle, they found nothing save the inanimate clay which but a short time before had been the abode of a soul. The deceased was thirty-eight years of age, and had been married almost one-half of that time. Her hunband, bowever, deserted her a year or two ago, and since then she has been compelled to earn a cince then she has been compelled to earn a absistence as best she might.

Coroner Carey held an inquest upon the body yesterday evening, and the jury rendered a verdict of death from want and privation.

HIGHWAY ROBBERT.—A man named Eifert, who resides in Kenton County, Kentucky, a short-distance from Covington, was taken up to a senseless condition by some policemen, and carried to the Ninth street Station house. After a partial recovery he stated that he was in his wagon, and on the way home when he was assaulted about half-past ten o'clock on the corner of George and Linno'clock on the corner of George and Linn-treats, by some follows who struck him with a slung-shot, knocking him senseless, after which they robbed him of six or eight dol-lars—all the money he had—and then left him upon the sidewalk in the condition in which he was found by the police. His head was severely bruised as if by the stroke of some blunt instrument, and his body was otherwise severely injured. He does not know who the parties were, and it is probable that, legalls, at least, this outrage may never meet with the punishment it deserves.

Pixe's Opera-house.—The Incommunity last night draw to the Opera-house one of the fluest audiences ever assembled at this establishment, and Mr. Murdoch's impersonation of "Young Mirabel" was capital. The play passed off with spirit, and proved an entertainment which might be repeated with profit. To-inght Mr. M. will appear as "Alfred Evelyn" in Bulwer's beautiful play of Money, the performance concluding with the laughable farce of The Toodles.

Wood's Theaven. Maggie Mitchell is still the center of attraction at Wood's, and will appear this evening as "Asmodena" in the popular drama entitled Savin in Pans. Her representation of this part is one of her best, and will doubtless draw, as in always does, a full house. The pregramms will conclude with Milly, THE MAID WITH THE MILKING PAIL.

NATIONAL TREATES .-- Mrs. Farren offers to INTIGNAL IRRAFRA—INTS. Faired ones to-night, for the entertalment of the habituse of the hational, a new play entitled Woman's Prauta, in connection with the laughable protean farce, A Drv-russ Good Jore, in which Fanule Fits will person-ity the principal part. The bill is an excellent one, and we have little doubt that the friends of this lady and her accomplished daughter will avail themselves of the opportunity of witnessing it.

confrible Nixon's Hall.—The Arctic Pane rama in all its cold and Northern beauty is still on exhibition at this place, an excellent entertainment for these wintry evenings, and well calculated to make one contented with the weather. It is a fine painting and should be seen by all who are, or have been interested in the expicrations of the late Dr. Kane.

Police Count .- Forty-one persons were be

Police Court.—Forty-one persons were before the Police Court yesterday morning, but there was very little business of more than ordinary interest. We give the finale of a couple of cases which have heretofore been related in our columns.

Emma Moore, charged with the larceny of six dollars from a man who was induced by her frailty to accompany him to the moises l'emour in which she resided, was sentenced to hard labor at the County Jail for a term of two months.

A fellow named Patrick Clark, who belongs A fellow named Patrick Clark, who belongs to that large and contemptible class who are in the habit of abusing their familes, was arrested on Saturday night last, and confined in the station-house, upon a charge of having assaulted his wife. He appeared before Judge Lowe yesterday morning, and was sentenced to pay the costs of the prosecution, and to be confined in the dungeon of the County Jail and fed on bread and water for a term of five

The case of Annie Richmond, who is charged The case of Annie Richmond, who is charged with harboring persons of elastic chastity, was examined yesterday before a jury. The prosecuting witness, Isaac Frost, we believe, did not appear, and the testimony which was elicited failed to impress the entire jury as sufficient to convict the defendant, and they were discharged at ten o'clock last night, the ballot standing seven for acquittal and five for conviction. The case will be reheard on Friday next.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT .- A man named Danle Kahn was arrested day before yesterday on a warrant lesued at the instance of a Mr. Frank, who charges him with assault with intent to kill. It appears that Kahn and a lad named Henry Frank became involved in a quarrel on Monday of last week, at Benckenstein's Garden, and while F. was on his way home K. struck him upon the head with a bowlder tied in a handkerchief, and injured him so severely that it is hardly expected he can recover. Kahn was committed, in default of bail to the amount of $1,500, for his appearance on Thursday next.
